

The quick progress of AI technologies introduces major moral dilemmas. Problems like biased algorithms, privacy of personal data, and the threat of widespread unemployment are heavily discussed. It is crucial for humanity to create strong laws to guarantee the safe application of AI.